A Corrections, Community and Faith-based Re-entry Partnership

We know you want to be successful on the outside. We know you can do it. You have what it takes. Home for Good in Oregon (HGO) is voluntary. We respect all beliefs and faith traditions. We'll review your information and send you a letter giving the HGO support available for you in your community. Some communities have fewer resources available than others. Also, some people need more help than others, so depending on your situation, the resources provided by HGO partnerships may be limited and will vary.

Nothing in HGO replaces the work of counselors and parole (community corrections) officers on housing, employment, and supervision conditions. It is your job to keep them informed.

This partnership has one primary goal: To help you be a positive part of your community in your life beyond these walls and wire. Again, from all of us, Welcome home!
