November 19: Crafting and implementing a local plan to end homelessness

For local community leaders and others engaged in developing local plans or seeking to move from planning to action.

- How to develop and implement a local 10-year plan to end homelessness.
- Developing the plan. Making a case for developing the plan. Identifying key players. Establishing goals and objectives.
- Implementing the plan. Who will implement the plan? Who makes decisions about funding and policy? Keeping people engaged and maintaining momentum.
- Refining the plan. Bridging resources and systems to end homelessness. Tools to document success. Telling and selling the story.

November 20: Developing and owning permanent supportive housing for people experiencing homelessness

This day is geared toward organizations considering supportive housing development, and toward community leaders engaged in local efforts to end homelessness and who consider permanent supportive housing a part of the solution. Communities with an officially adopted plan or beginning implementation are encouraged to attend.

For more information about this event, please contact Janet Byrd, Executive Director of Neighborhood Partnerships, 503.226.3001.
