

Rey Ramsey

Rey Ramsey is Chief Executive Officer of One Economy Corporation. Under his leadership, One Economy, which he co-founded in 2000, has emerged as the nation's leading nonprofit organization in the field of technology. He has led the organization's growth from four employees working in basement to a global organization that has taken root on four continents.

Mr. Ramsey is an internationally respected social entrepreneur who has spent years creating innovative partnerships between nonprofits, government and the private sector. He has been featured in numerous publications and was named among "50 Great Leaders" by Oregon Business magazine.

Mr. Ramsey is the author, with Ben Hecht, of ManagingNonprofits.org: Dynamic Management for the Digital Age (John Wiley & Sons).

Prior to the founding of One Economy, Mr. Ramsey served as President and Chief Operating Officer of the Enterprise Foundation. Before joining Enterprise, Mr. Ramsey served in the cabinets of two governors of Oregon as the state's Director of Housing and Community Services and practiced law.

Mr. Ramsey serves on many boards, including the Schnitzer Investment Corporation, Washington Jesuit Academy and the Local Initiatives Support Corporation (LISC). He is the immediate past chairman of Habitat for Humanity International. He holds a B.A. in political science from Rutgers University and is a graduate of the University of Virginia Law School.
